

Peter Bernholz

Biography

Retired professor of economics at Universitaet Basel, Switzerland. Educated at Marburg and Munich Universities. Main fields of research: Austrian Real Capital Theory; Public Choice; Monetary Theory, Policy and History.

Rockefeller Fellow 1963/64 at Harvard and Stanford Universities. Guest professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Institute for Advanced Studies, Vienna, Stanford University, University of California Los Angeles, Australian National University, Canberra, University of California Irvine, Universita degli Studi di Roma "La Sapienza", Universitaet Innsbruck.

Corresponding Member of the Bavarian Academy of Sciences. Dr. h. c. of Universitaet Konstanz and Universitaet Freiburg.

Co-Founder of the European Public Choice Society and her President from 1974 to 1981; Member of the Wissenschaftliche Beirat (Academic Advisory Council) of the German Minister of Economics since 1974. Member of the Board of the Mont Pelerin Society 1992-98.

Among many publications are Aussenpolitik und Internationale Wirtschaftsbeziehungen (Foreign Policy and International Economic Relations), 1965, The International Game of Power, 1985, The Bundesbank and the Process of European Monetary Integration. In: Deutsche Bundesbank (ed.): Fifty Years of the Deutsche Mark. 1999, Monetary Regimes and Inflation, 2003, and The Swiss National Bank from 1945 – 1982. In: Swiss National Bank (Ed.): The Swiss National Bank 1907-2007, 2007.